A Very Merry Christmas and A Most Happy New Year to All!

NEW LEGENDS in New York Debut

Tom Canty, Brian Cody, Eric Kimball and Bob Gould, the four Mass. Art lads who comprise Boston Comicworks, announce and extend an open invitation to an upcoming show of their graphic wares in New York. Exhibiting at the Creation Convention, an annual gathering of comic art, horror, sci-fi and fantasy enthusiasts at the Hotel Biltmore, 43rd and Madison, January 4,5,6, they'll be debuting the second issue of their underground comic, NEW LEGENDS, as well as a large collection of heretofore unseen work. All interested parties are urged to dial Boston Comicworks at 267-4026 for further information.

Against all odds (and soaring paper prices), NEW LEGENDS II is finally meeting the long smile of a friendly printer and promises to set fans of the comix medium on their collective ear. Upcoming for the Comicworks team are articles on them in The Boston Phoenix and Creem Magazine as well as a spot on Boston's own Channel Five. Taking it all in their traditional stride, the lads are currently and furiously hard at work on a "second project" -- the nature of which they smilingly (but politely) hesitate to divulge.

Faculty members are urged to bring their personal file folders in the Academic Dean's office up to date in all respects so that the Committee on Faculty Advancement and Welfare (Charles Abbott, Chairman) will have complete data on which to base their decisions. The folders should contain division and department chairmen evaluation, self evaluation, peer evaluation (testimonials), divisional evaluation, student evaluation, and personal data forms.

From Registrar Stavros:

This semester there will be a "new look" to the method of giving semester evaluations or grades. Each faculty member will receive a computer print-out sheet that will list each student in the course. To the right of the student's name will appear H -- P -- Inc. -- W -- NC. All the faculty member has to do is circle the appropriate symbol opposite each student's name and sign the sheet at the bottom. Hopefully, grading will be simpler and faster.

Grades must be returned to the Registrar no later than December 31, 1973.
